MAN IS ANNIHILATED BY NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLOSION AT UTICA CONCUSSION SHAKES COSHOCTON HOUSES

Ben Thompson's Body Is Blown to Atoms in Licking-co. Horror Monday Morning — Team of Horses Killed — Thompson Falls While Carrying Can of Explosive From Magazine — None Know the Real Cause of Explosion — Nearly Every Window in Utica Shattered — Shock Is Plainly Felt Here.

Ben Thompson, 27 years old, an oil well shooter living in Utica, O., 35 miles west of Coshocton, and a team of horses he was driving, were blown into atoms when a quantity of nitro glycerine, which he had loaded into a wagon from the company magazine at the Josh. Perry farm, north of Utica, exploded. No part of the man's body has been found. The concussion of the explosion was felt in Coshocton every house and building in the city being shaken to the foundations.

According to a statement made by a resident of Utica Monday morning to The Age over long distance telephone, Thompson left his home early to take some glycerine to a well which he was to have shot Monday afternoon. He was unaccompanied, driving a team of horses hitched to a magazine wagon especially equipped for hauling nitro. The magazine of the company the Marietta Torpedo Co., is located on the Josh Perry farm about 1 1/2 miles north of Utica. It was the general opinion that after Thompson had partially loaded his wagon with the explosive he slipped and fell while carrying a can of the nitro in his hand. The can, it is supposed, exploded and the concussion set off the entire wagon load. None know exactly how the accident occurred.

Man Annihilated.
Utica was rocked as though by an earthquake and almost every window in the town was shattered, arousing all the residents. People rushed to the scene of the accident in automobiles, buggies, and on foot. Searches were made to find some trace of Thompson but not even parts of his clothing could be found. He was entirely annihilated. The team of horses and the wagon was blown to pieces. Small pieces of the horses' flesh were picked up half a mile away from the scene of the tragedy.

Experienced Man.
Thompson was a comparatively young man and had worked most of his life around the oil fields of Utica and vicinity. He leaves a wife and two small children. The wife is prostrated with grief.

Several Coshocton people were awakened early Monday morning by the shock of the explosion. Houses were rocked and windows were shook in their frames. In the western end of the county nearer the seat of the accident the shock was more severe and people were frightened. At Warsaw, Nellie, Walhonding and farther west the concussion was more severe.

A Peculiar Explosive.
Nitro-glycerine is a peculiar explosive. It takes a direction almost as though it were shot out of a gun and does not "splatter" its explosion like dynamite. A wagon load of it can explode and a man standing west of it escape without a scratch while a man standing east of it, for instance, will be blown to atoms. There is no telling which way it is going, or why.

Has a $5 Bill Waiting for Him
If you lost $5, don't you think you'd keep after it hot-foot? Well, a certain gentleman lost a $5 bill a couple of weeks ago and advertised in The Daily Age, but failed to leave his name, and never inquired afterward if there had been any trace of it found. The little Age adlet worked as usual, and found the man who had found the money. If the party who lost it will call and make himself known, he can be put in direct connection with some real money.

DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF SHORT TIME

Mrs. Eliza Stuard Stricken With Apoplexy at Daughter's Home HAD BEEN SICK ONLY FEW DAYS

Body Is Removed From Lafayette to Canton For Burial

Mrs. Eliza Stuard, 72 years old, was stricken with an attack of apoplexy at the home of her daughter Mrs. Daisy Dyer in West Lafayette died at 5:30 o'clock, an hour and a half later.

at 4 o'clock Sunday morning and Mrs. Stuard had not been in good health for several days but was able to be around the house and was not confined to her bed.

Sunday morning she became suddenly ill and hardly before her relatives realized that her condition was critical she had answered the final call.

Mrs. Stuard was one of West Lafayette's most prominent women and had made a wide circle of friends there during her residence in the village.

She leaves a son and two daughters besides the daughter, Mrs. Dyer with whom she lived.

The body was taken to Canton Monday morning where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon.

DENOUNCES LEAGUE FROM THE PULPIT

Rev. Brewer Reads Protest to Saturday Move in Sunday Morning Service

Current report had it that the Rev. Geo. Brewer had denounced the Citizens League from the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning. The Age asked the Rev. Mr. Brewer for a statement for publication of that portion of his remarks, and the following typewritten statement has been furnished for publication. It is printed just as received:

A protest made Sunday morning from the Presbyterian pulpit by the Rev. George Brewer in response to the petition circulated Saturday by the "Citizens League":—

"You doubtless all read in last evening's papers the demand by a certain number of citizens for a regulated saloon and I cannot let this day go by without making a protest to the demand itself and the method by which it was made. As nearly as I could learn last night from several who were present, the meeting held in the Standard hotel Friday evening was called by two men, attended by about thirty, who formulated their plans and completed their canvass for signers by noon Saturday. So the whole problem as publicly stated 'involving the moral, social and economic welfare of this whole county' was solved in one night's brief discussion and the plans were executed in one morning. I do not regard that as a representative policy, as good judgment or as sound wisdom.

"But even more, I do not regard it as sincere. In the text of their demand they 'deplore the lack of law enforcement' while among the signers is the chief executive, and other officers of the law, whose sworn duty is to enforce the law. If they cannot regulate the bootlegger when he is an outlaw they will not regulate him when he is licensed under the law.

"Nor do I regard it sincere from the facts revealed in connection with this letter which I wish to read to you written to his wife by a husband who left home last Monday morning in shame and estrangement. (The letter was read but has not been given for publication.)

Now the circumstances in this case are that this husband returned to his home last Sunday evening beaming, rejoycingly drunk and he came direct from the rooms of an association in this city that rents the rooms and furnished the liquor that made the man drunk last Sunday afternoon and over eighty of the signers to this demand protesting against the 'blighting curse of bootlegging' are active members of that association. The whole plan looks to me to be a veiled scheme for getting good men enlisted in the demand for a wide-open saloon.

"In reading the list of these signers I am thankful to God for the men of this church whose names are not found in that list. And I feel it my duty to urge you as members of this church—the church that has spoken in no uncertain sound on the saloon question—to keep yourselves unspotted from this damning traffic."

PITTSBURG MEN COLDEST NOV-EMBER DAY IN CITY'S HISTORY

Villagers Aroused Over Big Land Deal There Last Week

CITIZENS' SCENT BIG BOOM SOON

Think Pittsburgers Plan to Build a New Factory in Village.

What plans have unknown Pittsburgers for West Lafayette? That is what is agitating the live people of this wide-awake little town just now.

Last week Pittsburg parties came there and bought a block of lots in the Stewart addition, 32 in the place. They wanted to get hold of 40. The tract is north of the railroad in the new part of the village that is building up rapidly.

"Public opinion is that they are figuring on placing a factory there, but just what kind or by whom cannot be fathomed. They made their negotiations with Robert Kirk and he says he himself hasn't the slightest intimation of their plans.

At all events it is making folks feel pretty good to have outsiders come in and buy lots by wholesale. It certainly augurs well for the live town on the plains.

POULTRY MARKET TAKES BIG SLUMP

The poultry market has "busted" so to speak, and chickens and turkeys are cheaper than for many years. New York and other eastern cities are flooded with poultry and prices are dropping fast.

"The bottom has dropped out" stated Charles Lorenz, the second street commission man to an Age reporter Monday. "The reason is it has been such a good year for chickens. Never has been so many chickens running around before in history. Everybody is raising them and the chicks have thrived all summer long, a few turkeys. They are generally hard to rear but this summer they are positively husky. Great droves of them, and that brings down the price. Instead of selling retail this Thanksgiving at 22 and 23 cents a pound, they will be around 17 or 18 cents."

DINAH TURNER IS GIVEN A DIVORCE

LOCAL MAN INVENTS A NEW GLOVE WILL MAKE THEM HERE

C. H. Leavengood Gets a Patent on Reversible Glove — Assigns Half Interest to J. A. Heskett — His Own Idea.

Charles H. Leavengood, proprietor of the Leavengood Glove Co., whose factory is on Orange street, was granted a patent on a reversible glove which can be worn on the left and right hand interchangeably, at Washington Oct. 10. The glove will be manufactured here.

Mr. Leavengood conceived the idea of a reversible glove several months ago and at once started to work on the idea. He made several dozen gloves before he perfected his reversible style. The glove is made of oppositely disposed materials, one of which forms the back of one finger and the other the front of another finger. It is said to be a great success.

Mr. Leavengood has assigned one half interest in the patent to John A. Heskett of this city.

The new style of glove will be economical in that the reversal will lengthen the longevity of the article. It will probably be a fast seller when put on the market.

Mr. Leavengood has ordered some special machinery for the manufacture of the new glove and as soon as it arrives and is installed he will begin the manufacture of the article.

Two Dead at Easton.
Chicago, Nov. 13. — The town of Easton, 13 miles east of Havana, Ill., was completely isolated from the world, and the fact that a tornado had swept the outskirts of the town and country surrounding was not made known for many hours. The dead: Mrs. Saline Henneger, 75; died of fright when her home collapsed. Infant of Mr. and Mrs. James Prator, found 100 yards from her home, which was completely demolished. The wind came from the south, swooped down and demolished farmhouses and barns for several miles south of the village.

County Jail Demolished.
Virginia, Ill., Nov. 13. — The ga' which swept Virginia destroyed a quarter of a million dollars' worth of property and injured 10 persons seriously and one fatally. Seven Ministers Sign Paper Declaring Against the Saloon License

Seven members of the local Ministerial Ass'n Monday morning signed the following statement, anent the wet and dry cause, emphasizing their stand on the "dry" side. The statement is as follows:

"With malice toward none and with charity for all," we, ministers of Coshocton, Ohio, do, with unprejudiced minds, unhesitatingly and emphatically put ourselves on record against the open saloon, believing it to be in every way, and eternally, hurtful to the extreme to the social, economic, intellectual, moral and religious interests of any nation, commonwealth, municipality or home. That it is a law breaking traffic. That it cannot be reformed.

"That an institution that outrages the divine law of love will never obey the police regulations of men. We therefore pledge ourselves as enemies to this foe of God and men, and stand unalterably opposed to the return of the open saloon within the borders of our county on any condition, however plausibly presented under cover of pledges which can never be redeemed.

"We further call upon every voter in the county and all who can exert moral influence; every organization that places righteousness first, to stand against the return of this damning traffic under cover of license, and by so doing protect our children, our homes and our fellow citizens, and deliver our own souls in the presence of a just God.

FIND RESORT IN OPERATION

Police Net Catches Three Men, Two Women in Raid Saturday.

When Chief of Police Williams, Lieut. Hanking, Patrolmen Gorman and Fretague went into the Joe Woods building, on Walnut street, at 9:30 Saturday night looking for a speak-easy they found a questionable resort in full operation on the second floor. The place was invaded and resulted in the arrest of three men, one of whom is married, and two women, whose names are said to be Helen Hartman and Mrs. Burgess.

The five people spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city prison and were arraigned before Mayor Cassingham Monday morning. They each pleaded guilty to a charge of frequenting a place of questionable character and a fine of $10 was assessed against the two women and the men each drew $5 and costs. All paid and were released.

The police department's suspicions were aroused early Saturday evening and it was thought booze was being sold in the building. The place has been searched with fruitful results on several different occasions. At 9:20 the police entered the building and started a search. All the wet goods that could be found was in the rooms of a man named Holmes and it was his private property. The policemen found the alleged resort in full operation and made the arrests. The men's names are being kept secret by the police. It is said the married man went into the house after one of his friends.

Lost Sixty-Nine Pounds in Four Weeks — The Great Kidney Remedy Saved Her.

In sending you this unsolicited testimonial, to the merits of your great remedy Swamp-Root, I am only returning in a very small degree, the benefit I received from it. After suffering for 14 years with pains in my hips, in January, 1908, I was taken with a severe case of uricemic poisoning. After consulting five different physicians and still getting worse, I began the use of your remedy. The uric cases went into the muscles of my back, and hips, causing me excruciating agony, so that I lost sixty-nine and one-half pounds in four weeks. My only relief was morphine, which caused after effects almost as hard to bear as the pain. I could eat no solid food and indeed had no appetite for it. For nine weeks I subsisted on a milk diet. My husband and friends had given me up to die, when I commenced taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. My improvement was immediate and marked. Now after taking it for one year I feel like a new woman.

I do all my own work and sewing included. Have an eight room house and three in the family. I can take long walks and feel fresh and vigorous after them. In fact, I am better than I have been in fifteen years. You can use this testimonial in any way, as I feel it is due to you for my wonderful recovery. I feel that to-day I would not be living, had I not taken Swamp-Root. Again thanking you for your wonderful remedy, I am, Yours most gratefully,

Watch for Tomorrow's Issue of The Age — See That Your Baby is Nominated at Once — Start Saving Coupons and By All Means See the Manager of Gift Enterprise — Competition Bound to Be Great Success — Everybody is Interested and the Babies Are the Talk of the Entire Community — Get Your Friends to Promise You Their Assistance Before Some One Beats You To It — Be an "Early Bird" and Start Tonight.

Have you ever seen anything just like The Age's $800 prize baby competition? No, you never have. Never before in the history of the great state of Ohio has there been an enterprise that has so interested the public in general. The very fact that "It's all for the babies" has aroused public sentiment to the degree that everybody has joined hands and has decided to "Boost the Babies."

Hundreds of nominations have poured into the office of the gift enterprise manager within the past twenty-four hours. Babies from all parts of Coshocton county, have been nominated and still the names pour in—in an unending stream. Everybody seems to appreciate the wonderful generosity manifested by The Age in offering such a magnificent string of prizes for the babies of this vicinity. There is no question about it, the gift enterprise is bound to be a great success. And the parents who share in its success, will be the ones who take hold during the early stages. They will boost their tots to fame and fortune.

The first publication of nominations will be made tomorrow night. Watch for it. You will surely be interested. You will scarcely be able to believe that there were so many babies in Coshocton county when you read the lists tomorrow night. Don't be frightened because so many have entered this great competition. The more the merrier. The race will be much easier to win with hundreds entered, as it will naturally hold the vote down to a normal figure by virtue of the fact that the field will be so thoroughly divided up.

The Age means exactly what it says when it announces that the picture of all the babies will be taken and if desired, published in the columns of the daily issue. Parents who have not already sent in the photos of their tots, should see the manager of the gift enterprise at once and procure an order on the Danford studio for a free photograph. This matter should be attended to without delay. It takes some little time to manufacture engravings from the photos and for this reason, all pictures should be in the enterprise office at the earliest possible convenience.

Be sure to save the coupons out of The Age. They are good for ten votes each. You can go anywhere to gather them. Your field of labor is unlimited. If you have a friend who is not a subscriber to The Age get his subscription.

If you don't understand the feature, see the gift enterprise manager at once. He is in his office every day from 8 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night. He has many interesting details to explain to you. Now is the time to nominate your baby. Get in line. Have the little tot's name appear in the first announcement of names tomorrow. Attend to this at once. Do it now. Your little cherub has just as good an opportunity and perhaps better than any other baby. Just stop and think what it will mean to you, to win three hundred dollars in gold within the next six weeks. It is a salary of fifty dollars a week. Worth some effort, isn't it? And if you win second prize, it means $150 to you. Place either sum of money to the credit of your baby, in some local building or loan association and leave it there to bear five or six percent compound interest, until the tot grows to mature age, and see what a grand sum of money has accumulated. Stop and think this over.

The competition has just started. Now is the time to enter if you expect to grab one of those liberal cash prizes. The proverbial "early bird" always catches the worm. Be sure and get in line now. You are surely convinced that it is well worth your while. Your little tot is deserving one of those fine gold prizes. You don't want your neighbor's child to step in and win the prize that might have been yours. Think over these things. Weigh them well. And by all means see the enterprise manager at once.

Peking, Nov. 12. — As a result of the continued failure of the threatened rebel advance to materialize, the recent panic has calmed down somewhat. The latest see-sawing reports say that Yuan Shih Kai has started for Peking. The report has further relieved anxiety, as Yuan, after announcing that the prospect of reconciling the revolutionists was almost hopeless, telegraphed later that the prospect was somewhat better. Li Yuan Heng seemingly is willing to discuss a compromise with a view to stopping the fighting, but his colleagues differ with him.

The differences of the rebels, indeed, hang as a dead weight upon the efforts at pacification, and may, it not soon composed, endanger Chinese liberty. There are already rumors that the Manchus have been heartened by divisions among the revolutionists and their success at Nanking, and are preparing forcibly to uphold the dynasty and their own privileges.

The Grange

HARRY CATON, Editor.

Moore and Vinsel Are Delegates.

Coshocton county will have four votes at this session of the State Grange. Lee Moore of Mohawk grange and G. T. Vinsel of Plainfield grange are the new delegates chosen to represent the county in the State grange sessions.

Many Coshocton county grangers will attend the National meeting at Columbus next week.

The National Grange.
The forty-fifth annual session of the National grange will convene in the city of Columbus, O., on the 15th of November and will be in session continuously for about ten days. All members of the order, especially in the central west, should arrange to attend this meeting, thereby coming in closer touch with the officers and members of this national body. A full set of officers are to be elected at this session for a period of two years as well as much other very important business is to be transacted. Every fourth degree member of the order is entitled to and welcome to attend the business sessions.

According to the report that the secretary of the National grange will present to that body, it will show that there has been more new granges organized during the last fiscal year, also more members added to the rolls of existing granges than have been gained in any year for thirty-five years. These gains will be shown to come from almost every grange state.

On the evening of the first day a public meeting will be held to which every farmer of Ohio is cordially invited to attend and become better acquainted with the order which for almost half a century has been working for your interest and you have taken no part in it.

If there is any doubt or uncertainty in the minds of any member as to whether this national body of yours is working in good faith, and whether the chosen representatives are true to the trusts which have been imposed upon them, don't make up your minds by reports that you may hear or see in some newspaper, but go to Columbus and there become acquainted with all who are responsible for the national affairs and be satisfied from a close personal investigation as to the real condition existing and the moral standing of the membership. This will mean but a small sacrifice of time and money and I believe any one attending will feel that they have been fully compensated for the time and money expended.

The program will be carried out about as follows:

National grange will meet Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 11 a. m. All meetings will be held in the A. I. U. temple unless otherwise announced.

Public reception Wednesday evening at chamber of commerce.

Seventh degree Thursday evening, Nov. 16, Knights of Columbus hall.

Lecturers' Conference Friday afternoon, in charge of Oliver Wilson, Lecturer of the National grange. All Ohio lecturers are urged to attend if possible, as the usual lecture conference held during State grange will be omitted owing to lack of time. Come, help make this the best meeting of lecturers in the history of the grange.

Juvenile Degree Friday evening, Nov. 17, exemplified by the degree team of Belmont Juvenile grange. Memorial services Sunday afternoon, Nov. 19.

The election of officers and the adopting of the National grange platform will come between the 20th and 25th.

Chittenden Hotel.

A Maine Grange Co-operative Potato Market.

A grange co-operative society has been organized in Arrostock county, Me. The plan of organization was formulated by the two Pomona granges. The association is capitalized at $100,000, divided into 55 shares. Two Pomona granges took ten shares and the balance of the stock will be sold to individual patrons. At every station where there are at least 20 stockholders with 60 or more shares, a warehouse will be established which will be under local management, under the direction of the association. No one person will be allowed to hold over 1,000 shares of the stock. Business will not be started until at least 2,000 shares of stock have been sold. The general purpose of the association are to enable the farmers to market their potatoes more economically, to regulate to some extent the manner and time of placing the crops upon the market, etc. Another matter of the greatest importance is the grading, branding and inspection system which the association hopes to inaugurate.—J. W. Darrow.

EXTENSION SCHOOL AT BAL TIC SURE

Organization Perfected and Plans Are Being Made For Event.

(Baltic American)
An event of far more than local importance will take place in Baltic during the week of Dec. 11, when an Agricultural Extension School, under the supervision of the Ohio State university, will be held here.

Out of nearly 125 applications for the school, from among the 88 counties of the state this year, but 40 were granted, and Baltic is indeed fortunate in being one of the favored ones.

A meeting of representative farmers and citizens interested in the movement was held in Regula's hall on Tuesday afternoon at which Prof. C. R. Tidlow, assistant superintendent of Agricultural Extension work, was present and gave a comprehensive talk, outlining the various branches of work, method of procedure and what an influence these schools have already exerted toward the betterment of the farmers' and home-makers' conditions.

At the close of Prof. Tidlow's address, a local organization was formed, officers elected and committees appointed as follows:

President, Jacob McQueen, Baltic.
Secretary-treasurer, B. C. Fisher, Baltic.

Membership committee — (Men)—H. C. Gerber, Baltic; Simon Treond, Stone Creek; Lloyd Hostetter, J. M. Hostetter, J. W. Andrews, Sugar Creek; W. D. Lint, Flat; George Genter, J. J. Schumaker, Alex. Louise Allen as Mary Jane in the Buster Brown Production at Sixth-St. Theatre Tonight

Scene from 3rd act of "The Old Homestead" at the Sixth street Theatre Tomorrow night.

The Theatre

Buster Brown

A precious youngster is that Prince of Jollity, "Buster Brown," who comes to the Sixth street theatre to night. In fact this juvenile head centre of the genius Brown, has become notorious throughout the land for his fun-making proclivities and right well he is aided by his dog Tige, Mary Jane, the maid, Mrs. Brown and all the familiar figures that have revolved about the youthful Buster from time to time since his first inception by the greatest of all caricaturists, R. F. Outcall. Buster this year is personified by Master Harold, than whom no better has ever essayed the character. New songs, dances and music together with new and most elaborate costuming and staging add zest to this year's presentation of this most effective of musical comedies.

"Old Homestead."

There could be no more welcome announcement for the amusement-loving public than the appearance here of "The Old Homestead" at the Sixth-St. theatre Tuesday, Nov. 14. The dear old pastoral play itself is by this time so familiar to everyone that any attempt to describe it would be supererogation. The mere mention of the names of Joshua Whitcomb, Cy Prime, Seth Perkins, Aunt Matilda and Ricketty Ann, is sufficient to bring to mind all of those delightful characters, and at the same time arise in the background the pictures of the old farm, the homestead in Swaney, Grace Church on Boardway in New York City, and the aristocratic mansion of Henry Hopkins, the metropolitan merchant and millionaire.

The company this season is practically the same as last, and the production is said to be perfect in every detail. Seats for the engagement are now on sale.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. For sale by all dealers.

No More Constipation — WHEE!
It's Me for Olive Tablets!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.
No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets.
They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.
It is easy to compel bowel and liver activity for a time with calomel and nasty, sickening, gripping castor oil, but the after effects are dangerous, and the real cause of the trouble is often not even touched.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.
They never gripe.
If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.
Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.
"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."
All druggists sell Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets in convenient pocket packages, at 10c and 25c.
Made by the Olive Tablet Co. of all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory. For sale by all dealers.

As I grew older, my hair commenced to come out, just a little at first, but gradually more and more, and then began to turn gray. I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy to try a bottle. My hair was quite thin and gray when I began using Sage and Sulphur, and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, being thicker, darker and more glossy than it had been for a long time. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is now as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is still in splendid condition.

DON'T LOSE SIGHT OF THE REAL ISSUE

When an important question comes up for consideration of the people, there is only one thing to do. Everybody should cast his vote so that there shall be an honest expression of the sentiment of the people. If, as has been hinted, there is to be a vote taken this fall in an effort to discard the Rose law and its many attendant evils of intemperance, then let every voter in the city and county make it a point to go to the polls and register his honest opinion. There ought to be no intimidation, no "influence," no coercion used in a wet and dry election any more than in an ordinary election, and under the recent corrupt practice act all such things are tabooed in the ordinary election. The thing which we are all of us seeking, we believe, is temperance. It matters little whether this, that, or the other leader, is a second-rate hypocrite, a liar, or any other mean names that one may think of; that is not the question and should not enter the equation. Has the Rose law promoted temperance? Has it made this town and county better, or worse? What the average voter strives for is decency and temperance. That is the issue.

The appointment of Allen W. Thurman, chairman of the board of administration, seems to have been a tactical blunder of the Democrats. He refuses parole to men convicted of bribe taking.

Progressive leaders are now behind LaFollette's candidacy but will the progressive folk follow these leaders? Hardly, for Taft is leading as fast as one safely can.

The board of administration finds that about $140 a year had been paid by the steward of the penitentiary for water which oozed out of the butter after delivery.

UNANSWERED

The president has asked one particularly pertinent question a number of times during the course of his western trip. The fact that this question remains unanswered throws an interesting light on a curious condition in the politics and journalism of our time.

Speaking of the supreme court decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco Trust cases, and particularly of the bitter criticism hurled at the court because of its distinction between "reasonable" and "unreasonable" restraint of trade. Mr. Taft said in Detroit three weeks ago:

"Now, I would like to ask Mr. Bryan, or any of the other publicists and jurists who have been denouncing the opinion as the surrender of the rights of the people and a usurpation of judicial power, to tell the public what particular contract or restraint of interstate trade he would condemn, which would not be condemned within this definition of the court?"

The fact that this suggestion has not yet been acted upon by any of the critics of the supreme court is, of course, simply a confession that a number of politicians and muckraking journalists have been raising a tremendous hubbub without knowing what they were talking about.

This country is full of high-sounding but meaningless phrases just now. Men are making their way in politics and in journalism through the constant repetition of phrases which often are but vaguely understood by those who use them most. The remarkable thing about the whole performance is that the people have borne with the dealers in glittering generalities so long.

Senator Bourne of Oregon was once as enthusiastically confident of the success of the movement for the free coinage of silver as he now is for the "recall."

The American Consul at Jerusalem reports: "Europeans here claim that the cost of living is higher than in

IS DEMOCRACY RE-ACTIONARY?

Representative O. W. Underwood, leader of the Democratic majority in the house, it may be assumed, speaks for a considerable section of his party. Chosen to what is at this time the most important place in the party, chairman of the most important committee in the lower house of congress, and now boomed enthusiastically for the Democratic nomination for the presidency, Mr. Underwood's utterances are, doubtless, well weighed and authoritative.

When, therefore, he speaks words such as the following it is a portent of great significance:

"Some Democrats want to put the initiative and referendum plank into the national platform of the Democratic party. I think that would be unwise. The initiative and referendum as a local issue, is sometimes successful. But when you attempt to apply it to the United States you destroy the entire fabric of the constitution. We are not a true democracy. This is a representative government."

WHY THE SHERMAN ACT?

There could be no more obvious waste of effort than that involved in the attempt to create a public sentiment favorable to the repeal of the Federal Anti-Trust act of July 2, 1890. The people long ago made up their minds about the evils which the law was intended to remedy, and now that convincing demonstration has been made of its efficiency they are not at all likely to be misled by attacks upon it, however specious. — Journal of Commerce, N. Y.

FROM OUR READERS

(Communicated.)

Editor Age:—There was brought to my attention Sunday evening when on my way home from church, an article signed by J. F. Meek appearing in his personally controlled, news-paper in this city, in which he attacked the men who signed the paper Saturday that starts the Citizens League. In the first place Mr. Meek appears to class all whose names did not appear on the Citizens League list as Christians and all who did sign it, as something else. He asks what assurance there is that the Citizens League will enforce law if the Rose law is discarded? I reply much more assurance than we had three years ago when Mr. Meek and his cohorts promised us that if the Rose law were adopted, there would be no more drunkenness, no heart aches, better business, fewer policemen and little use for any and lower taxes. Mr. Meek promised us that three years ago. Not a single item of his promise has come true. To the contrary things have gone just the opposite.

He goes on to say that "these men," the signers of the Citizens League, "have been agitating and stimulating lawlessness." Perhaps the gentleman forgets that that list is composed of the LEADING business men of this city, the retail merchants who are the real builders of Coshocton. He forgets that they are members of churches just as much as he is a member, that they are sincere Christians just as much, and I may say more, than he is a Christian. He forgets that many of the men who are signers of the Citizens League voted dry largely on his say-so three years ago, and now they have no more faith in him than they have his Rose law. I believe that Mr. Meek does right to defend the Rose law, the same as any employee should defend an employer. But let him not prate of Christianity in that connection. Christ himself, when he was on earth, partook of wine and gave others to drink, and I cannot lead myself to believe that Mr. Meek in 1911 knows more than Christ did in the year 1. As a businessman I resent the statement of Mr. Meek and his organ that the business men, the retail merchants, have agitated and stimulated lawlessness. We are trying to save this community from the lawlessness which Mr. Meek introduced three years ago with the bootlegger and speakeasy.

FIRST BOMB THROWN IN GOTHAM STRIKE

Hurled at Police, But Fails to Do Serious Damage.

New York, Nov. 13.—The first bomb-throwing of the street cleaners' strike occurred in Harlem's "Little Italy" section. Lieutenant Jones and Sergeant Hellmors, in charge of a squad on guard, were talking at the corner of Pleasant avenue and One Hundred and Sixteenth street. Something hit the curb 20 feet from them. There was an explosion that jarred the ground. They heard things whistle past their ears. Glass was broken in house windows near by. Jones and Hellmors, investigating, found a jagged piece of gaspipe in the gutter. It was, they concluded, the remains of a very business-like bomb, meant either for them or for strikebreakers.

NATURE'S CURE FOR CHRONIC ULCERS

Only by removing the cause can any chronic Ulcer or Old Sore be cured. No one will question the truthfulness of this statement. The cause is always from an inward source, never an outward influence; and therefore the only possible way to get rid of these places is to take internal treatment. Pure blood is the one unfailing cure for chronic ulcers; just as long as the circulation is allowed to remain in an impure condition the place will be kept open from the constant discharge of impurities into it from the blood. But pure blood will change this condition and the flesh tissues will be nourished and made healthy, and then nature will promptly and permanently heal the ulcer. S. S. S. is recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers and therein lies its power to cure old ulcers and sores. It goes into the circulation, and removes every trace of impurity or infectious matter, and so enriches this vital fluid that it nourishes all flesh tissues instead of irritating them with impurities. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood and the place has healed over it is not a surface cure, but the entire ulcer is filled in with healthy flesh. Book and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

REV. BURKHARDT DELIVERS SERMON

Fine Address Made Sunday Evening to Members of Congregation.

Rev. H. C. Burkhardt of Indianapolis, brother of Rev. Burkhardt pastor of the local Church of Christ, filled the pulpit of the local church at Main and South Eighth-sts Sunday night and preached an uplifting sermon. He took a subject that had a vital interest to everyone and handled it in a way that appealed to all who heard him. Rev. Burkhardt is a powerful speaker and commands attention. He will deliver sermons both morning and evening next Sabbath.

Rev. Burkhardt said in part Sunday night using "Evolution of Sin" as his topic:

From God's gifts society made conditions as they are. The god and virtuous in society are always a challenge to the temper.

The first step according to Achan's confession was his "look" upon the spoil and so with Eve the sight and admiration of the tree. Man has that double power of living between the material and spiritual, with the ability of looking above or below. Sin never approaches one in its developed state but presents itself in the gay colors, sparkle and mirth of the crowd.

A second step with Achan, "I coveted." According to Christ's teaching he is now a thief at heart and only waits for the act to take place.

The third and final step: "I took." A very natural process: "I saw," "I coveted," "I took."

Eve said she had been warned not to "touch it." Well might she have been warned not to look upon it. Many men allow their eyes and lower thoughts to indulge in so-called pleasures, when away from home, that they would not grant admission into their homes. Often they find that this bit of meat that they brought from the burning altar carried with it a coal of fire that was to be the burning of their homes.

HERE ARE THE STORIES THAT WON THE PRIZES

Buster Brown and Mary Jane and Tigie arrived today and will entertain their friends at the Sixth street theatre. They will have no more ardent admirers however than the young folks in the boxes on the left and the ten front orchestra seats on that side—Daily Age prize story winners.

Nine young folks have been made happy by seats that they won. They were awarded Saturday and today. Here are the four highest graded essays, the ones that won the box seats:

FIRST PRIZE.
One summer day Buster Brown's mother bought him a new suit. She told him to be careful and neither get it torn nor dirty, as he was about to take a walk through the country. The first thing to amuse him was two farmers leading a calf by a rope. Buster asked them for the loan of the calf, for they were busy talking about a trip to New York, and of thirty cents one of them intended to spend for enjoyment. Buster got the loan and assured the farmers he would not hurt it. Immediately the calf dragged him off his feet, in the air, then swapped the ground with him leaving the new suit a wreck with mud. The farmers laughed until the big tears rolled down their cheeks, but Buster only said, "If you got what I got and what I am going to get, you would not feel like laughing." When he landed home he got the brush, on the place where he keeps the pillow tied.

Annie Wilde.

SECOND PRIZE.
Buster, Tigie and Mary Jane need no introduction I am sure, for they are the most popular trio in the United States with John D. Pierpont Morgan, and Andy Carnegie as their rivals. Buster is by no means a model boy, although he is not bad he is always into some kind of mischief. When he is in for a spanking I do not blame him for using a cushion as a protector, for I am sure that I would not like to be so sore that I would have to eat my meals off a mantel, but it would be a good excuse for playing hooky. I am sure that Tigie would allow no harm to come to Buster for Tigie has good teeth and plenty of nerve. I would be proud of a cousin like Mary Jane, a brother like Buster and a dog like Tigie. I hope that Buster gets less spanking and less scolding in the future. I should like very much to see Buster, Mary Jane and Tigie all alive at the Sixth-St. theatre, Monday night.

Clarence Groene.

THIRD PRIZE.
Buster was looking sad Jane was sad and poor old Tigie had no handkerchief left.

"Do you suppose it is true," said Tigie.

"That's what I heard anyway" said Mary Jane.

"Something must be done, because think of all the trouble it would make" growled Tigie. "Look at Buster now. You would never think he was the same boy you saw last Sunday. He is growing thin."

"What's the matter?" asked Buster's mother sweetly, peeping into the room.

"Bow-wow" growled Tigie "ain't we going to get to go to Coshocton?"

"You dear silly children, of course some one has been trying to fool you but cheer up, we are all bound for Coshocton. We would not dare to disappoint the boys and girls."

Rathleen McDonald,
717 Pine street.

FOURTH PRIZE.
Of all people I ever knew or read about I think that Buster Brown and his friends can beat all for having fun even if Buster does have to suffer a little for his pranks and his father must have lots of money to pay for so much damage that he does.

His dog Tigie once bit an Italian that was selling balloons and Buster got away with the balloons and went home and had a circus with them. About that time the servant girl came to Buster's father and told him there was an Italian at the door and wanted five dollars. He just handed the money without asking any questions.

While I wouldn't do Buster a wrong in the world I wouldn't mind smiling on Mary Jane myself.

PRESIDENT IN GOOD SPIRITS

Glad He Got in Better Touch With People of the Country.

Washington, Nov. 12. — Far from being dejected over his own or the Republican party's future, President Taft is back at the White House after his 15,000-mile swing around the states. He interprets the recent election as certain indication that the drift toward the Democracy which overwhelmed the Republicans in 1910 has been halted. He does not regard the results in Ohio's municipal elections, where three reliably Republican cities went Democratic, as at all significant in respect to the national situation. The president declines also to accept the re-election of Foss of Massachusetts as a repudiation of the national administration's attitude toward tariff revision. Mr. Taft is confident, in fact, that the Republicans would have carried Massachusetts by at least 75,000 if this had been a national campaign year.

Many reports have been circulated recently in regard to the president's dejected spirits over the political outlook. These have been based for the most part on a statement made by him in his recent Chicago speech. He declared on that occasion that while some folks thought a crisis was at hand for the Republican party, he was hopeful that the people of the country had only chastened the party a bit in an off year, with no intention of making a further change. The president added that in the event of the country's rejecting a change, he and other Republicans would loyally support the new government. It was the latter statement that was immediately grabbed as an admission of hopelessness on the president's part. It has embarrassed the president's supporters, some of the rumors growing out of it going so far as to say that the president was thinking of withdrawing from the candidacy.

Sincerity is Deep.

Nobody who talked with the president after his return could doubt the genuineness of his belief in the prospects of the Republican party. While the president has contended that he did not undertake his trip around the country for politics, it is apparent that he feels considerable satisfaction in having laid before the people of nearly every part of the country his views and ambitions in regard to the national issues. The president returns to Washington deeply impressed with the cordiality of the receptions he received on his long trip. Upon his return he finds himself confronted with the task of writing what will probably be the most important message he ever sent to congress.

The plan of the president and his advisers at present is to make his annual message as brief as possible, and then to deal with several important subjects in detail in special messages. Besides the tariff and legislation supplementing the Sherman anti-trust law, the president will undoubtedly recommend in his message the creation of a permanent tariff board, the institution of a parcels post, legislation affecting Alaska, currency reform and the passage of the general arbitration treaties.

It was learned that the president's attitude toward legislation affecting the Sherman anti-trust law has been misunderstood. The president is not opposed to legislation supplementing the present act. He is against efforts to amend so as to emasculate or change its present meaning. As supplementing the Sherman anti-trust law, the president intends to recommend to congress again his federal incorporation act.

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND

The old family doctor, of whom so few are now seen in this age of "specialists," was the valued friend and adviser of his patients. They depended on him to keep them in health, and cheer them with his counsel. He taught them the wisdom of preventing illness by watching closely after the health of the family.

Mrs. S. H. DuBois writes from her home at Hempstead, L. I.: "Vinol is an old friend of our family. We have used it for years whenever any of us need a tonic on account of being in a rundown state of health, and it always gives perfect satisfaction. We have used nine bottles this winter."

There are thousands of families who could and do say the same thing. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, has proved its value by bringing back rugged health and strength to vast numbers of weak, rundown men, women and children. That is why we sell so much and guarantee it to give satisfaction. If it disappoints you, you can have your money back at once. Stegert & Williams, druggists, Coshocton, Ohio.

WOOL REPORT READY

Tariff Board Will Say Duties Are Too High.

Washington, Nov. 12. — President Taft's tariff board will present figures which will warrant substantial reductions in the wool and cotton schedules in the Payne-Aldrich law. The board has not yet formulated its report on either of these schedules, but the final returns are being tabulated and there is no doubt among advisers of the administration that the findings of the board will point to a considerable lowering of the duties in these two schedules.

GOMPERS REPORTS CONDITIONS GOOD

American Federation of Labor Meets In Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12. — Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, submitted his annual report at the opening session of that body here today.

Mr. Gompers announced that the federation, through its affiliated organizations, has the largest membership in its history, that it is sound and its prospects bright, that in a number of important strikes during the year gains have been made and that there has been a tendency to continue the shortening of the work-day and to do away with child labor.

President Gompers also went into the alleged kidnapping of the McNamara brothers and told of his own testimony before the senate committee appointed to investigate the "third degree" ordeal as practiced by officers of the United States. Among other things he said:

"The committee made an extended investigation, on July 8 giving me a hearing. I made an extended argument citing numerous cases of police oppression under the 'third degree' ordeal, and particularly emphasized the kidnapping of John J. and James B. McNamara. I recited to the senate committee the details of the methods employed by the Burns detective agency men in their sensational force tragedy circuitous routes in transporting the McNamaras to Los Angeles, evidently planned to avoid habeas corpus or other legal processes being served. I especially pointed out to the committee that it is only workmen in the United States of America upon whom such dastardly outrages are perpetrated."

Secretary Morrison reported a balance in the treasury of $189,579.56. Mr. Gompers refused to be interviewed on the subject of the proposed antagonism to himself as head of the federation.

Let the Roscoe Water Power Do it for You

A little electric motor will do the manual labor in the dentist's shop and save the dentist for skilled work.

A little electric motor in the livery stable will save the wages of one man in cutting up the feed and grinding it.

A little motor attached to the cistern pipe at the home will bring the soft water all over the house for general use.

And it is cheap, noiseless, smokeless, fireless. It only works when you tell it to, and uses very little current.

But when it works it is right on the job.

Let us go over the matter in detail with you.

Local High Puts One Over on W. Lafayette College Eleven

Coshocton Wins Fast Game At Riverside Park Saturday Afternoon From Husky Heavy Weights By a Score of 6 to 0—Second Time Lafayette Has Suffered Defeat At Locals' Hands This Season—Secret Won The Game By Prettily Executed Straight Buck For 40 Yard Gain to Goal Line.

Secret's splendid 40-yard run for yard line. End of the third quarter.

In the final period the local players made a determined effort to score again but the time was up too soon and they were forced to be content with what they had made in the second period. Clark was given the ball and made but five yards on the pass. The same thing was worked on the opposite end and Sauvel came up with an additional 10 yards. Successive bucks lost the ball for Coshocton and the visitors took possession. They punted out and Crowthers came back for 10 yards. Secret crashed through for five yards bringing the ball on the 15 yard line. Here a splendid opportunity for a field goal was given but Crowthers was unable to lift the piskin high enough and the ball was blocked by McVeigh. He in turn fumbled and the ball went to the locals again. After frequent bucks and a splendidly executed pass to Sauvel who ran for 10 yards before being stopped time was up and the game went to Coshocton. Timberlake was conceded to be the star of the game for the visitors although their playing could have excelled in some lines.

Touchdown—Secret. Goals from touchdown—Donley 1. Referee, Smith and Johnson alternating. Timers—Cresspan and Farmer. Linesmen—Hanley and Brown. Substitutes—St. Clair for Donley; Clark for St. Clair; McVeigh for Clark; Cohen for McVeigh; Sheetz for Montgomery, and Montgomery for Daugherty. Time of quarters, 12 minutes.

The First Score.
Coshocton high's first score came in the second quarter. Both teams had tried almost everything they had: line bucks, forward passes and cris-cross plays. Finally there was one thing that they had not hit upon, a straight buck. Then with the ball on the 40 yard line, Secret's signal for a straight buck was given and passing through center he made the distance that separated him from the college team's goal line Donley easily kicked the goal.

The ball was received by the visitors on the next kick-off but the second quarter ended before they could do any damage.

Visitors Nearly Scored.
On the next kick-off McVeigh evaded the local players and his run looked good for a touchdown but he was stopped after he had covered 25 yards of ground.

It was in this quarter that Crowthers, Clark, and Sauvel made the best plays each run bringing 15 or 25 yards. At no one time was their goal threatened and the W. L. C. players had all they could do to keep from being scored on. Towards the end of the quarter Crowthers and Clark made several runs that looked good for touchdowns but they were blocked just in the nick of time.

C. H. S. tried several bucks and lost the ball to the visitors on downs. They in turn could not keep the ball and were forced to kick. Crowthers receiving and bringing up on the 22

A Stock Story.
"When I was a barefoot lad," said Dustin Stax, "I had to spend a good deal of time minding the stock on father's farm. I'll never forget the day when father told me to take a rope and hold a couple of bull calves."
"What did they do?"
"They scorched my hands with the rope and then turned around and stepped on me."
"Unlucky disposition?"
"No; wonderful instinct. They recognized me at a glance as a small stockholder."—Washington Star.

GET BLOODHOUND TO TRAIL ROBBERS

Canal Dover, Nov. 13.—Burglars Friday night robbed the saloon of Charles Beer and the hardware store of E. J. Schladley at Beach City. About $8 in cash was taken from the register in the Beer saloon and at the Schladley hardware store the thieves took a number of knives and revolvers. They entered the building after having broken windows in the rear of each of the places.

Austin Nicodemus, of Newcomers-town, took his bloodhound, "Lady," to Beach City Saturday forenoon and is making an attempt to trail the robbers.

Two suspicious strangers were seen in Beach City Saturday and it is suspected that they may have had knowledge of the burglary.

STATE GRANGE OPENS SESSION

Columbus Is The Mecca for Farmers This Week.

Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Farmers, not only from Ohio but from all over the United States, will visit Columbus this week to be in attendance on one or more of the conventions that are booked for the period beginning this morning and ending Saturday. It is expected 2,000 men and women interested in the cause of agricultural science and the welfare of the farmer will be guests of the city. The organizations that will hold their sessions are as follows:

The Ohio State Grange, which opened today and will close tomorrow evening; the American Association for the Advancement of Agricultural Teaching, opens and closes tomorrow; the American Society of Agronomy, opened today and continues throughout the week; the Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science, opens and closes tomorrow; the American Association of Farmers' Institute Workers, opens tomorrow and closes Wednesday; the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations, opens Wednesday and closes Friday; the Association of Official Seed Analysts, opens Friday and closes Saturday; the National Grange, last four days of the week.

Of the eight, local interest will center in the session of the State Grange and widest interest in the convention of the National Grange. The latter, it is thought, will bring 500 representatives to Columbus. It is estimated that 1,000 delegates will attend the State Grange sessions and 500 delegates will attend the sessions of other organizations.

Secretary Wilson to Speak.
The combined meetings will flood Columbus with men high in the hierarchy of farmers' organizations, also Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, presidents and deans of all agricultural colleges in the United States and the majority of the provinces of Canada. United States Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine and Former Governor of New Hampshire Nahum Bachelier, master of the National Grange, and Philander P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, also will come to Columbus.

One of the prominent speakers who will talk to agricultural school instructors will be M. Kaumanns, imperial German commissioner for agriculture to the United States. He will discuss "The Influence of Farmers' Associations on the Development of Agriculture in the United States."

Delegates to all of the conventions will be afforded opportunity to examine the work along agricultural lines of the Ohio State university.

SUDDEN CHANGES

Weather Bureau Says President Week to See
Capricious Weather

Washington, Nov. 13.—The weather bureau issued the following weekly bulletin: The present week will be one of pronounced weather changes over practically the entire country. The cold wave that now covers the middle west will advance rapidly eastward and give the lowest temperatures of the season the first two days of the week throughout the eastern and southern states, and on these days abnormally low temperatures will continue in the interior districts east of the Rocky mountains. An extensive disturbance that is now off the North Pacific coast will advance slowly eastward and be attended the first part of the week by stormy weather in the North Pacific states. It will cross the Rocky mountains tomorrow, the middle west Wednesday or Thursday and the eastern states the latter part of the week; this disturbance will be preceded by a general change to warmer weather, be attended by rains in southern and rains and snows in northern districts, and will be followed by a change to colder weather over the northern half of the country.

Three Freeze to Death.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Three men are dead from cold and exposure and one man is dying from a skull fracture, the result of a fall on an ice-covered sidewalk, and thousands of dollars' worth of damage to property and traffic, was the heavy toll exacted by the snowstorm which arrived in Chicago on the wings of a blizzard from the far west.

Three Houses Burn.

Marysville, O., Nov. 13.—Three residences at Richwood burned to the ground with most of their contents. Two of them were owned by Morris W. Hill, who was elected mayor of Richwood. The third house was owned by Mrs. Cordelia Dewitt. The loss on the three buildings and contents is about $4,000, with $1,000 insurance.

ABSOLUTELY CURES STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.

Go to your Druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

OHIO NEWS.

Democrat Wins at Canton.
Canton, O., Nov. 13.—By an odd-and-even test pulled off by the board of elections Arthur Turnbull, Democrat, was declared elected mayor of Canton. By agreement, Turnbull took the even and Schilling the odd guess on the number of grains of corn dipped in a cup from a receptacle held over the head of a member of the board of elections. A count showed that the cup contained 119 grains. This made Turnbull the winner. A great crowd witnessed the drawing. The result returns Turnbull for his fourth term.

Attorney Thatcher Disbarred.
Toledo, O., Nov. 13.—Charles A. Thatcher, attorney, was disbarred from practice in the United States courts through a decision of Judge J. M. Killits sustaining charges of unprofessional conduct. Thatcher was barred from the state courts by the Ohio supreme court a year ago, but later was reinstated by an act of legislature. Thatcher has given notice of appeal to the circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati.

Impaled on Shaft.
Marysville, O., Nov. 13.—Charles Goetz, 45 a baker of Millford Center, was instantly killed while returning home on his bicycle. He was riding behind a rig driven by Charles Chappel and when he went to turn out for a rig driven by Benton Stillings, in the opposite direction, the shaft of the latter's buggy struck him in the pit of the stomach, penetrating a depth of 12 inches, and broke off.

Bank Cashier Released.
Fostoria, O., Nov. 13.—The preliminary hearings of W. E. Rose, cashier of the Sun Savings bank of Rising Sun, before Justice W. W. Ellman, on a charge of embezzlement, resulted in his dismissal on motion of Attorney Sheffer, who claimed it was faulty in many ways. It is not known whether new charges will be filed.

First Mormon Lands in Pen.
Columbus, O., Nov. 13.—Valentine Siner, received at the penitentiary from Stark county, has the distinction of being the first Mormon to ever serve time in an Ohio penal institution. And he wasn't sent up for bigamy either. He is to serve three years for forgery.

RHEUMATISM Cured Without Drugs

We can show that ELECTROTONES, a purely scientific treatment, has cured more cases of Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble than all other remedies combined. They may cure you.
Our proposition is so fair that, if you are a rheumatic sufferer, you simply will try our galvanic treatment. You simply deposit one dollar with one good doctor, and take a pair of ELECTROTONES. Wear them 10 days, if they fail to cure, return them and get your dollar back.
If your druggist cannot supply you, send one dollar to the ELECTROTONES CO., Lima, Ohio, and try a pair. Your money will positively be refunded if they fail to cure.
